JOHN 15:13-15

13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

And--and our meetings, we...If God don't supply our needs, then it's time for me to get--get off the field and go home. See? But when He supplies my needs, why I just keep on staying wherever He leads me to go. And if He has no place to led me, why then I just go wherever the managers picks out a place to go. And I love people, and I love to minister to them, and I love them because they love Christ. And if they love Christ, then they bound to love me. You can't love--you can't love Christ and hate me. You--you got to love me too, because I'm--I'm His servant. And I have to love you, because you're His servant; and I happily and--and most gracefully, in my heart, do love you, every one. That's true.

Our Heavenly Father, it's with great delight that we bring these people before Thee. Laying here tonight is these handkerchiefs that represent sick and afflicted people. We love them, because they love You. And Thou has brought us nigh unto Thee by the washing of Thy blood of the water of the Word, and has brought these people to relationship with us. And now we are sons and daughters of God, brothers and sisters in Christ. And our hearts go out for each other in sickness and in trouble, when one member suffers all the members suffer from the effects. And Father, in my heart and in our hearts tonight, we suffer with a burden that You'll heal all these people. We want to see them well. We want to see them up, going about, and well and healthy.
